Deputy Collector Believes Total of $22,000,000 Last Year Is Surpassed.

$500,000 LARGEST CHECK

More Than 15,000 Individuals Make Payments on Last Day in Person.

State income tax returns received up to midnight at the office of Niles R. Becker, deputy in charge of the local office, indicated that, contrary to pre-dictions, the amount of the tax this year would be greater than last. The total paid in last year at the local office was $22,000,000, and it is be-Heved that amount has been passed.

It was estimated that $3,000,000 was paid in to Mr. Becker's office yesterday, an amount greater than on the biggest day last year. The total receipts for yesterday were $1,000,000 more than on any other day this year.

More than 100,000 pieces of mail were walting at midnight to be opened. The largest check received during the day was for $500,000 and the smalest was for 1 cent. More than 5,000 cash returns were made. Five policemen and eight special police officers were kept busy at Mr. Beckers office by the crowds. It was estimated that more than 15,000 persons called in person at the office at 120 Broadway to make their same at the office at 120 Broadway to make their same of the last day before the payments during the last day before the law would exact its penalty for late repayments until the last day were men and women with a comparatively small tax to pay. More than 100,000 returns were received a month ago.

The seventy-five clerks in the office were aided during the rush last night by twelve extra clerks sent from Albany.

COURT SAYS PROBATION INCREASES BOY CRIME

Justice Cole Declares It Is Being Overworked. Special Desputch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

BUFFALO. April 15.—Too much pro-bation is the cause of the alarming in-crease in juvenile crime in Eric county. according to Justice George W. Cole of the Supreme Court, who was called upon to pass judgment here to-day on nearly a score of offenders between the ages of a score of offenders between the ages of 16 and 20. Practically every youth araigned told the court that he had been in trouble before and that he had been placed on probation. Many were sent to reformatories.

"Probation is being seriously overworked," said Justice Cole. "Practically every youth who gets into trouble pleads for probation and begs for another chance, and then goes out and commits a crime more serious than the first. Probation, which at times is a blessing, is becoming to be a curse for the wayward youth. It helps him go from bad ward youth. It helps him go from bad |

WOMEN VOTERS ACT ON PRIMARY TO-DAY League Convention Thanks

Wilson for His Help.

C'HYELAND, April 15 .- Delegates to the ceronic annual convention of the National League of Women Voters practically wound up the business of the week's meeting here to-day by the adoption of the recommendations of the seven standing committees—American citizenship, child welfare, elections laws and inter, 44%, July, 1967, 91%, 924, 4.91 methods, food supply, social hygiene, universely and women of the seven and women.

methods, food supply, social hygiene, uniform laws concerning women and women in industry.

The only recommendation left to be yoted on refers to primaries, which will come up to-morrow morning. It was said to-night the primary plank would be adopted.

The convention adopted a resolution thanking former President Wilson for his "timely assistance in securing the special session in Tennessee" at which suffrage was finally ratified.

Supreme Court Justice Delehanty decided yesterday against granting an injunction that would prevent the Loew and Orpheum vaudeville circuits from furning over to the National Vaudeville Artists, Inc., the receipts from last Friday's matinees, which amount to $43,000. He accused Harry Mountford and William P. Conley, one share stock holders, who sought the injunction, of bad faith in seeking merely to harass the circuits because they disapproved of the use of the moner for an insurance fund, and assessed them $10 costs.

CONCERT FOR IRISH RELIEF.

The Irish Musical Society, non-political and non-sectarian, the president of which is the Rev. Father Duffy, chapitain of the Sixty-ninth Regiment, will give a concert for the Irish Relief Fund to-morrow evening in Carnegie Hall. The programme was originally prepared by John McGhie, but owing to his liness the conductor will be Christian Krients. Irish and Societ songs will be sung by Miss Marion Telva of the Metropolitin, Mmc. Myrtle Leonard, Milo Miloradovich, Daniel O'Brien and the St. Cecile Male Quartet, Homer Burress, Delos Backer, Alvah Nichols and James Thomas. Miss Morgan and James Thomas Miss Morgan harpist; Miss Madeleine MacGuigan, violinist, and Conal O'C. Quirke, planist, will also take part. Officers of the society, beside Father Duffy, include Victor Herbert, vice-president; Martin Conboy, treasurer, and Edward J. Walsh, secretary. secretary.

COLLEGE CLUB GIVES PLAY.

COLLEGE CLUB GIVES PLAY.

The Brooklyn College Club scored a distinct hit last night in the Brooklyn Academy of Music with its first theatrical venture, "You Can't Do That," a musical comedy written entirely by the club members. In a cast of 125 were many young men and girls of prominence in Brooklyn society, which was also well represented in a large audience. The theme of the comedy revolved around prohibition and the blue laws.

The followers of Robert P. Brindell, imprisoned building trades czar, appeared before Supresse split wide open when Peter Stadtmuller, under indictment with Brindell for extension, appeared before Supreme Court, Justice Gavegan and got his bail reduced from $100,000 to $25,000. This man, formerly Brindeil's principal aid, had not receded from the belligerent attitude he assumed a few days ago when he publicly declared that Brindell had "thrown him down" for his refusal to assume blame for certain acts.

Shivatore Ferrara and Joseph Costanzo, murderers, were hanged here to-day. Cardinella, the gang chleftain, "The Wolf," died as he had lived—"yellow."

During his long career of crime, the police say he had a hand in twenty murders. Cardinella never had personally fired a pistol. He left that to his followers, youngsters whom he schooled in crime.
